Practical Information

Getting to the Conservatorium van Amsterdam (151 Oosterdokskade 1011DL Amsterdam)

The Conservatorium van Amsterdam is situated in the “Oosterdok” neighborhood of Amsterdam, nearby the Amsterdam Central Station (8-10 minute walk). It is located directly next to the main public city library and across from the “Sea Palace” restaurant on the water.

There are direct trains running from Schiphol airport to Amsterdam Centraal, which take roughly 15-20 minutes. At Schiphol airport you need to purchase a ticket at a kiosk, which you then scan at a “check in / check out” reader. You may also purchase a ticket online in advance (see link below). Depending on how much you intend to travel within Amsterdam, you may also choose to purchase a 24- or 48-hour unlimited public transport card (also available at the kiosks).

Tourist information for the city of Amsterdam and North Holland can be obtained at the tourist information center (VVV) around from Amsterdam Central Station. See their website, <https://www.amsterdam.info/>, which also gives a lot of practical information about transportation, hotels, restaurants, and attractions. Below we list a select number of hotel, restaurants, and cafés in the Oosterdok neighbourhood.
